Whereas: The annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, has been officially recognized and endorsed by the President of the United States and Veterans Administration; and

Whereas: V.F.W. Buddy Poppies are assembled by disabled veterans, and the proceeds of this worthy fund-raising campaign are used exclusively for the benefit of disabled and needy veterans, and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans; and

Whereas: The basic purpose of the annual sale of Buddy Poppies by the Veterans of Foreign Wars is eloquently reflected in the desire to "Honor the Dead by Helping the Living"; therefore,

I, Raymond P. Toft, Mayor of the Village of Antioch, do hereby urge the citizens of this community to recognize the merits of this cause by contributing generously to its support through the purchase of Buddy Poppies, on the days set aside for the distribution of these symbols of loyalty. I urge all patriotic citizens to wear a Buddy Poppy as mute evidence of our gratitude to the men of this country who have risked their lives in defense of the freedoms which we continue to enjoy as American citizens.

Coupon Frauds Are Big Business, Says Post Office

Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien says that the Post Office Department is moving swiftly to head off growing fraud schemes in grocery coupon redemptions.

The Postmaster General noted that the Postal Inspection service currently has 25 cases of coupon frauds under investigation.

"It is unfortunate that some people misuse the mails in redeeming these coupons," O'Brien said. "But coupon redemption has become a major fraud and conspiracy, costing $20 million a year, according to the industry, with one out of every five coupons misredeemed. This is being done by organized elements who counterfeit, steal coupons or systematically turn in coupons when no purchase has been made."

Chief Postal Inspector Henry B. Montague said that the fraud schemes have involved printing plant employees, scrap dealers, grocery firm representatives and grocers and store managers. Mr. Montague said the P. O. Department is working closely with the grocery manufacturers to detect indications of mail fraud.

The industry reports that some $100 million a year is redeemed through the coupons. The coupons are used for a host of items ranging from soap to soup.

Postal laws may be violated when the misredeemed coupons are sent through the mail to the manufacturer or when the payments are mailed.

The misredemption scheme may be operated in several ways. In some cases, the coupons are stolen at printing plants or at other points along the distribution route. Coupons are also counterfeited.

Another method of operating is for a promoter to contract with scrap dealers for a "clipping service" from discarded newspapers or magazines.

Manufacturers are often tipped off on the scheme by the near perfect condition of the coupons when turned in, indicating that they have never been in a housewife's purse.

In all of these cases, it is necessary for the promoter to line up grocery stores that will turn in the coupons. Sometimes the coupons are redeemed by stores that do not carry the product, or the redemptions are for quantities far beyond the store's selling or stocking abilities.

Grocers are given two cents on each coupon redeemed for handling costs. Thus, the conspiracy works to the grocer's advantage.

The grocery manufacturers say that the problem is particularly acute in some areas, with stores advertising that they will redeem all coupons with or without the purchase.

In Baltimore last week, three persons were indicted by a Federal grand jury in a coupon fraud case. Two grocery store operators and a scrap dealer were involved.

According to the indictment, they conspired to defraud such firms as the Nestle Co., Campbell Soup Co., General Foods and Colgate-Palmolive.

In some cases, manufacturers noted that some small grocers were redeeming more coupons than their larger competitors and more than had been distributed in the area.

E. Elmer Brook Dies

E. Elmer Brook, a long-time resident of Antioch, active in business and civic affairs for many years, died Tuesday, June 14 in Victory Memorial Hospital.

Mr. Brook lived at 499 Lake St., Antioch, and operated a real-estate-business on Main St.

He was born in Burlington, Wis., and came to Antioch in 1905 to become a partner, with his brother, J. Ernest Brook, in the State Bank of Antioch. He was President of the Bank for many years, and held that office at the time the two Antioch Banks merged to become the present State Bank of Antioch. He left that position to work with the Illinois Auditor of Public Accounts, an appointive position with the state of Illinois.

Since 1935 he has operated a real estate office in Antioch, and was active in the business until his death.

He was a past police magistrate for many years in Antioch; a past member of the village board; a member and one of the founders of St. Ignatius Episcopal Church of Antioch, serving on the vestry for several years.

Mr. Brook was a charter member of the Antioch Lions Club, and in recognition of his service, officers and directors will serve as pallbearers at his funeral. He was also an active member of the Chamber of Commerce; a 50-year member of Sequoit Masonic Lodge 827 A.F. & A.M. in Antioch and a past master; a member of the Order of Eastern Star and Past Patron of Chapter 428 of Antioch, and a member of the Lake County Shrine and Medinah Temple A.A.O.N.M.S. of Chicago.

Mr. Brook is survived by his wife, Nina (nee McClelland), and one sister, Mrs. Edith Newell of Burlington, Wis., and a nephew, William Brook, of Antioch, president of the State Bank of Antioch. A Masonic service will be held at the Strang Funeral Home, 1055 Main St., Antioch, at 8 p.m. Thursday. There will be no visitation. Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Friday in St. Ignatius Episcopal Church. The Rev. Theodore Bessette will officiate. Interment will be in Hillside Cemetery. Friends desiring may make donations to St. Ignatius Church or the Antioch Rescue Squad in lieu of flowers.

Several Fires In District

The Antioch Fire Department had answered six calls to fires in the month of June up to Tuesday, June 14. May started out badly for the department, too, with calls May 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6.

June 1, a grass fire on Route 173 was extinguished.

A garage and work shop at the home of A. A. Benning III, on Hickory Street, on the south shore of Lake Marie, caught fire on June 3. Damage to the building was estimated at $2,500; damage to the contents, including a new Jeep, was estimated at $400. Cause of the blaze was undetermined.

A fireplace set fire to a beam at the home of Martin Valenziani June 10. The home is on Drexel Blvd., Grass Lake. Damage was estimated at $1,000.

A fire on June 11 in the vacant section of a building on Route 173 west of Antioch, housing Fiore's Pizza and Al's Barber Shop, was believed to have started from faulty wiring. About $1,000 damage was done.

A smoldering utility pole at Drexel and Michigan at Grass Lake called out the fire department June 12. Firemen stood by until Public Service crews arrived.

Fire in a vacant house on the shore of Loon Lake, owned by Marcel Kulp, did about $500 damage June 13. The cause of the fire was undetermined.

Not Too Late For Reunion

It's not too late for members of the graduating class of 1956 of Antioch High School to make reservations for the 1966 tenth reunion of the class.

Jim Fish, P. O. Box 31, Antioch, is still accepting reservations for the reunion, he said. It will be held at the Angel's Restaurant on September 24.

The committee in charge of the reunion is still seeking information on the whereabouts of four members of the class, Charles Ambrosia, Jim Mowen, Ed Reed and Nancy Rybacki.

Take Action On Drivers Licenses

The drivers license division of the office of Secretary of State Paul Powell has announced the following actions affecting Antioch residents: the drivers license of William J. Jordan, 98 E. North Ave., Antioch, was revoked on a charge of driving while intoxicated; the license of Douglas D. Dodd, Rt. 5, Box 460, Antioch, was suspended following three violations, and a probationary permit was issued to Douglas D. Dodd, Rt. 4, Box 460, Antioch.

Yellow Water? Be Patient, Please

"If you get a surge of iron in the water in the near future, please bear with us," says Todd Maplethorpe. Todd sounded the warning to Antioch residents because the Water Dept. intends to start chlorinating in the next week or ten days. Shortly thereafter, polyphosphates will be added to the water, and this is when residents may be annoyed by an extra concentration of iron.

The water mains and pipes have been collecting deposits of iron for some time, as the city fathers explain it. And people will continue to be annoyed by "rusty" water until the deposits are cleaned out.

The polyphosphates are expected to do that job. And once the deposits have been cleaned out, the polyphosphate is expected to "sequester" the iron, so that there will be no more accumulation and no more iron staining.

Village officials have been looking for a remedy for the trouble for some time. The polyphosphates are a possible solution, and in any event a necessary first step to clear water. The chlorine must be used

Jerry Staffon and Todd Maplethorpe are chairmen of the committees in charge of the affair.

Emmons School Bond Issue Was Defeated

What was believed to be a one-vote victory margin for the Emmons school referendum on a $195,000 bond issue has turned into defeat.

The bond issue received a vote of 138 for, 137 against in the June 4 election. Ted Larson, attorney for the school, says that a majority of the votes cast is necessary to approve the issue. The rule only applies to schools with a Board of Directors.

Voters had also defeated a proposal to raise the educational tax 21c.

Rescue Squad Has Busy Week

The Antioch Rescue Squad had a busy week last week, answering 14 calls in nine days.

The squad took Pat Schroeder, 1405 Woodridge, Round Lake, to Zion Hospital June 5, after an automobile accident in which George Schroeder was killed.

Also on June 4, Ada Miller, 77, of Edwards Road, Antioch, was taken to Zion Hospital.

June 7 the squad took Mrs. Lou Crawford and her son to the Antioch Clinic after an accident near Antioch High School at 2:05 p.m.

Mrs. Mallory, 930 Main St., Antioch, was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital on June 8.

Hubert Bryan, Deep Lake Road, was taken to Downey Veterans Hospital June 9.

Nancy Montgomery, Lake Villa, was taken to Great Lakes Hospital after injuring her back in a fall June 10.

Sandra Betler, 4 years old, Rt. 1, Box 107, Antioch, was taken to the clinic June 10 after a fall downstairs.

Scheskie, Gerretsen Winners In Primary

Election judge Gertrude Dupre demonstrates use of the Votomatic to first precinct committeeman Bernard Amundson and his wife.

A first in primary voting—use of the Votomatic voting machine made it necessary to label voting booths "Republican" and "Democratic." Republican and Democratic committeemen of Antioch's First Precinct, Bernard Amundson and James Stewart, got together long enough Tuesday to stand before the booths of their respective parties.

C. D. Siren Needed, Says Frazier

Edward Frazier, Antioch's Civil Defense Director, returned recently from a week of schooling in Civil Defense Management at Battle Creek, Michigan.

"Red" says the first thing the village needs is an air raid and tornado signal. Use of the fire siren is confusing. Civil Defense works also on tornado alerts and informing the public what to do in case a tornado strikes, so it isn't a "sometime" thing to be used only in case of enemy attack.

The siren, "Red" says, will cost about $700, and can be partially financed by Federal matching funds. However, he points out, government action is slow and much red tape is involved. It would probably take from three to five months to get the siren this way.

Frazier suggests that financing the siren would be an excellent project for some civic-minded organization. Financed this way, the siren could be procured in three to five weeks.

Civil Defense is people, Frazier says. The local organization will be good or bad, depending on the participation of the general public. In the disorganization of a disaster, its individual preparedness, the knowledge of what to do and what not to do, that counts. One dollar from each Antioch family, with perhaps a few larger bills from civic organizations, and Antioch can provide its own warning siren.

Fifteen Graduate From Emmons School

Fifteen students graduated from Emmons School Monday, June 6. The graduation ceremonies started at 8 p.m.

The professional was played by Miss Olive Dobson. The Rev. Donald Cobb gave the invocation and Benediction. George L. Hall, member of the Board of Directors, welcomed the graduates, parents and friends and introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. W. C. Petty, Superintendent of Schools. Diplomats were presented by Donald Fischer, president of the Board of Directors.

County-wide, Harold Scheskie won the Republican nomination for sheriff, with 14,562 votes; Norris Froelich polled 9,213 and Lloyd De-Tienne had 4,363.

Truman Gerretsen, candidate for county clerk, had a 7,000 vote margin over his competitor on the Republican ticket, Robert Babcox. Gerretsen drew 17,413 votes to Babcox's 10,570.

Raymond J. Sheahan polled 14,616 votes to Robert Milton's 8,052 in the county treasurer race.

W. J. Murphy and John Conolly were nominated for State Representative from the 31st District, each polling over 16,000 votes. Final count was Murphy, 16,735.5; Conolly 16,203.0; Keller, 11,487 and Kaiser, 2,404.5.

Robert Coulson defeated Max Wildman by a 2 to 1 margin for State Central Committeeman.

For Representative Committeeman from the 31st District, Bernard Drew, 10,489; Helen Burke, 9,757, and Rick Lantella, 7,905.

Helen Burke, precinct committeewoman from precinct 4 of Antioch Township, reported a total vote of 403 from precinct 4, with 375 Republican ballots cast and 28 Democratic.

The total Lake County vote cast was 38,539. Of these, 6,675 were Democratic.

AFS Plans For Next Year

A.F.S. announces that progress is being made in finding a home for next year's foreign exchange student.

Two families have offered to adopt a foreign boy or girl for the coming school year. Anyone else interested in applying for the high school age student should do so immediately. An application form can be obtained by calling Mrs. Leslie Sorenson, 272 Chestnut St., Antioch, 395-4017.

Each family should specify whether it would prefer a boy or girl student. It is not necessary, as in past rulings, that a family have children in the home to make an application. Any family in the Antioch Community High School District is eligible.

Rev. and Mrs. Harold Nelson from Lindenhurst have been chosen to serve as co-chairmen with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Sorenson on the home selection committee. The Nelsons opened their home to the first foreign exchange student, Masaji Okubo of Japan.

Money raising projects and further information will be announced as plans are formulated.

Schools, churches and any other group that has a bell at its command is being asked to ring it on Independence Day. The bell-ringing ritual is being promoted as a substitute for the fireworks that were formerly a feature of the Fourth of July.

People who grew up in the fireworks era miss the noise and sense of joining in a nation-wide custom that the fireworks afforded. Still, as parents, most are glad to be rid of the danger and expense of fireworks. They don't want their children cheated of a traditional celebration, but what shall they put in its stead?

What could be better than bells? Harmless, as loud or as lovely as your taste or your purse dictates. A large family bell, perhaps an assortment of smaller hand bells for the children, so that 1 p.m. July 4 everyone can add the voice of his bell to the chorus.

Finding small bells won't be a problem. The large bells, perhaps like the dinner bells that used to be on every farm, may be a bit tougher to find. Perhaps the bell industry will have a real revival.

The custom is loaded with enough tradition to suit the most avid historian. Bells long warned the populace of every danger from fire to an enemy attack. They were used for rejoicing, for summoning to church, for tolling the message of death. The clangor of bells is as stirring as a brass band.

Join in the Message of the Bells. This year, buy a bell in place of the fireworks we used to buy. They can be used from year to year, a delightful and meaningful national celebration.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Plans of Lake County Forest Preserve District President E. Kenny Harlan to seek an increase in the district's tax rate to help finance immediate purchase of additional forest preserve sites deserve support from the rest of the commissioners.

The support should be forthcoming not alone because Lake County should have additional land set aside for recreation and preservation in its original state, but because it would enable Lake County to get matching funds for the purchase from the Federal government.

There was a time when this corner deplored this growing dependence of affluent counties and cities to look to Washington with a hand out, but the wisdom of the argument, "If we don't get ours somebody else will" has won us over.

So completely have we been won over that it seems only natural that the County of Lake and the cities and villages in the county should get together to send a man to Washington to make sure no federal money is being overlooked.

There must be millions of dollars in federal money just kicking around the national treasury waiting to be claimed by some alert, forward-looking community.

A Lake County loot seeker could probably pay his salary 100 times over in the matching funds, partially matching funds, grants, low interest loans, and no-interest loans which could be weaned away from Uncle Sugar.

What matter if each dollar has a string tied to it. The money has been collected and is going to be spent somewhere so it might as well be in Lake County.

As a beginning the money man could probably line up enough federal money under some program to make it possible for the forest preserve district to hire all the out of work high school students and college students who could be put to work building roads, fireplaces, Farm, an exciting experiand picnic areas in each preserve.

Of course, it would be fine if the Forest Preserve Commissioners could do all this without federal funds so they could control the hiring, firing, and pay scales, but with all that federal loot who cares about a few controls.

Purchase of two more private water companies by the County of Lake is an important step in the development of a county wide water supply system under the direction of the Public Works Department.

As the water supply and sewer system expands the problem of financing the system is going to become more acute because issuing revenue bonds means paying a higher interest rate than would be necessary under a general obligation issue.

Of course the County Board would have to hold a referendum on general obligation bonds and those areas which are already served by the sewer and water systems might object to providing the same service for other areas of the county.

Now that the primary elections are over the immediate task at hand is the election of chairmen of the Central Committees of the two parties.

William (Mark) Turner, of Antioch, is being mentioned as a possible successor to Allen J. Nelson as chairman of the Democratic Committee.

One thing is certain; the Democratic Party in Lake County would make more noise under Turner than it has under most central committee chairmen of the past quarter century.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

The puzzlement of minimum-wage legislation has been resolved by the U. S. House of Representatives — at least for the present. But many citizens will argue that the puzzlement continues.

The measure recently passed by the U. S. House affects 30 million additional workers by increasing the minimum wage to $1.40 per hour beginning February 1, 1967, and to $1.60 per hour on Feb. 1, 1969. Furthermore, by this new attempt at regulating minimum wages, an additional 7 million workers will be covered — including many who work in hotels, restaurants, theatres, laundries, as well as on the farms.

However, farmers will be covered only if their employees work 500 man days per quarter. This means that a farmer who has 7 employees for 3 months or a farmer who hires 25 workers for 20 days will be covered. The situation is even more complex in the case of sharecroppers where the tenant's income depends largely upon their individual efforts but where the landlord's liability may require payment of wages in accordance with the new minimum wage bill. This would be a special blow in the case of a farm operated at a loss—with the landlord instead of sharing in the profits winds up with a large liability under the minimum-wage law.

For awhile it seemed that the U. S. House would adopt an amendment to exempt small businesses (those having gross receipts of less than $500,000 annually); but when the votes were tallied, the bill provided that beginning in 1969, businesses with annual receipts totaling as little as $250,000 will be required to comply with an hourly wage rate of $1.60 per hour. It is claimed this will kill Main Street, that is, the small independent businesses in small towns of America. Time alone will determine the validity of this dire prediction.

While colleges and universities were covered in the bill as presented, an amendment extended the coverage to employees of grammar schools and high schools. When this amendment was presented by Congressman Harold Collier of Illinois, he cited a situation in a certain high school where job corps employees under the poverty program were receiving wages higher than those of the school's regular employees. However, one effect of this amendment probably not intended by the sponsor will require the payment of hourly wages of $1.40 per hour to students working part-time in school restaurants, laboratories and auditoriums.

The minimum-wage bill will have little or no effect in Illinois' 12th Congressional District. Even the lowest paid nonunion industrial workers are paid above the law's scale. However, some teen-agers may be affected in their part-time jobs in theatres, in restaurants, at school or on the farm. If retained in their jobs, they may benefit. If they lose their job as a result of the new coverage and higher scale, they will suffer.

Other areas of the country, particularly the South, will be affected to a much greater extent. Some employers of those at the lowest economic level will have to increase wages to meet the Federal minimum. As indicated, other employees, including many Negroes, women, and teen-agers (especially school dropouts), may suffer loss of their jobs.

Payment of wages to unskilled workers including illiterates at the $1.40 to $1.60 level (as required by the bill) may not be justified. Yet, many of these are the very persons the measure is intended to benefit. For instance, subsequent to passage of the 1956 minimum-wage law, unemployment among Negro Americans increased from 18 per cent in 1957 to more than 25 per cent in 1959.

There is a popular belief that minimum-wage legislation is humanitarian; and that by passage of such a bill, the Congress is able to increase the living standards of American wage earners. But minimum-wage laws do not provide jobs. Indeed, there is valid evidence that such laws may eliminate some jobs and may even destroy some independent businesses and individual livelihoods. That does not seem to be very "humanitarian."

For about 70 million persons, most of them mothers and children, UNICEF-equipped health centers are the only link with modern practices of medicine and nursing.

Public Aid Costs More Per Person In March

The number of persons receiving Assistance to the Aged and Disabled and Aid to Dependent Children increased in March 1966 over the February total while the Blind Assistance and General Assistance rolls decreased.

Harold O. Swank, director of the Illinois Department of Public Aid, said that 409,699 persons received public aid in March, up 3,135 from the February caseload of 406,564.

Public Aid expenditures were $26,306,797 in March compared to $24,888,342 in February. Total expenditures in March 1965 were $27,610,787.

Old Age Assistance recipients increased by 908 persons in March, to 54,923, compared to 54,015 in the previous month.

The figures were released jointly by Gov. Otto Kerner and Secretary of State Paul Powell, chairman and vice chairman, respectively, of the Governor's Official Traffic Safety Coordinating Committee, state sponsor of the program.

Nationally, the program is sponsored by the Auto Industries Highway Safety Committee of Washington, D. C. It will continue in Illinois through the Illinois State Fair Aug. 12 through 21.

Uniformed automobile investigators of the Secretary of State's Office are conducting the tests using specially designed testing lanes donated by Bear Manufacturing Co. of Rock Island and Weaver Division of Dura Corp. of Springfield.

Through June 3, investigators had checked 4,845 cars in 14 Illinois cities. Of these, 2,108 were found defective in at least one safety aspect.

The total cost of all Public Aid programs in Lake County in March was $163,793, representing payments to 2,799 persons.

SAFETY-CHECK PROGRAM

Forty-five per cent have been rejected. That is the record to date of the voluntary Vehicle Safety-Check program in operation in 53 Illinois communities this spring, and summer.

The regulations provide, however, that an employer will be considered to have met requirements for a semi-monthly period under either of the following conditions: (1) The deposit for the semi-monthly period is not less than 90% of the aggregate amount of the taxes for such period; or (2) The deposit for each semi-monthly period in the month is not less than 45% of the aggregate amount of the taxes for the month.

In the case of either option, any underpayment for a month must be deposited within 3 banking days after the 15th day of the following month, except that an underpayment for the last month of a calendar quarter need not be deposited or paid until the end of the following month.

The "45% of monthly taxes" alternative and provision for monthly, rather than semi-monthly, reconciliations were added to the final regulations to adjust the new requirements to monthly payroll accounting systems.

Certain employers may need time to make an orderly transition to the new requirements. The Revenue Service said it will not impose a penalty under section 6650 on an employer who fails to meet the requirements of the new regulations as to the amount to be deposited for any semi-monthly period in the months of June, July, August and September, 1966, if his deposit for the semi-monthly period is not less than 50% of the aggregate of the taxes for the preceding month.

He must, however, deposit any underpayment for July or August within 3 banking days after the 15th day of the following month. This special transition provision will not be available to employers who normally pay more than 75% of their wages in the first half of the month.

Semi-Monthly Tax Deposits Required of Employers

The Internal Revenue Service has called attention to the new regulations dealing with wages paid during June 1966 and subsequent calendar quarters. Special deposits of social security taxes and withheld income tax are required by any employer who had more than $4,000 of such taxes for any month of the preceding calendar quarter.

Special deposits are required to be made on a semi-monthly basis, rather than on the present monthly basis, and taxes on the wages paid in a semi-monthly period must be deposited within three banking days after the close of such period.

The regulations provide, however, that an employer will be considered to have met requirements for a semi-monthly period under either of the following conditions:

(1) The deposit for the semi-monthly period is not less than 90% of the aggregate amount of the taxes for such period; or (2) The deposit for each semi-monthly period in the month is not less than 45% of the aggregate amount of the taxes for the month. The latter option is not available to an employer who normally pays more than 75% of his wages in the first half of each month.

In the case of either option, any underpayment for a month must be deposited within 3 banking days after the 15th day of the following month, except that an underpayment for the last month of a calendar quarter need not be deposited or paid until the end of the following month.

Christian love is a giveaway... in the real sense of giveaway—it doesn't expect anything in return. Christian love loves just for the sake of the one needing the love.

Christian love doesn't expect those on the receiving end to know certain answers, or make certain responses, or think a certain way.

So, Lutherans engage in social action and services of all kinds. They love now. Love cannot be postponed to the hereafter.

The basis for it all is Christ—"We love because He first loved us."

ACT Petitions Tax Rate Limit

The Association of Collective Taxpayers of Lake County is circulating six petitions. Five ask that a maximum tax rate limit be set on five taxing bodies of County government; the sixth petitions the return of the Township Collector. The questions will be placed on the November ballot.

The maximum tax rate limits proposed will not create a hardship on County Government, Leo Sheldon, president of the Association says. There will be ample funds available for the efficient performance of the required services, Sheldon says. The tax limits will, however, protect the citizens of the county against increases in tax rates unless the increases are approved by referendum.

Neither A Borrower Nor A Lender Be

If you're just aching to borrow your friend's eyeliner pencil — resist the temptation. The American Medical Association's Section on Cutaneous Health and Cosmetics warns that a serious eye disease — trachoma — can be transmitted from person to person by just such a practice as using another's eye cosmetics.

As a matter of simple personal hygiene, you should neither borrow nor lend your comb or brush, lipstick, powder puff or other cosmetics or tools that come into intimate contact with your skin or eyes.

A PRAYER TO REMEMBER

"Lord! Spare me the bitterness and passions of the unguarded moments.

May I not forget that poverty and riches are of the spirit.

Forbid that I should judge others lest I condemn myself.

Give me a few friends who will love me for what I am, and keep forever burning before my vagrant footsteps, the kindly light of hope."

SOME FACTS AND FALLACIES ON SUNBATHING

How much do you know about the healthful and harmful effects of the sun? Take this short "fact or fallacy" test and find out.

1. Water reflects the sun's rays. Therefore you're more likely to get burned while floating on a raft, sailing or fishing in a boat.

FALLACY. According to a recent dermatology research project conducted at Temple University in Philadelphia, water DOES NOT reflect the sun's rays. Actually water is quite transparent. That's why your legs can get sunburned when you're hip-deep in the pool.

It's true you may get more sunburned if you're floating, sailing or fishing on a lake, but for different reasons. For one, you're more likely to stay out longer because of the comfortable breeze. Secondly, the rays of the sun are more intense on a body of water where they're not obstructed by trees or buildings.

2. Beach umbrellas provide an effective protection against sunburn.

FALLACY. While beach umbrellas may protect you from the heat of the sun, they won't necessarily protect you from sunburn. You see, when the sun's rays hit the earth's atmosphere, they are scattered by particles of air, dust and water. These scattered rays are everywhere and can easily burn you, even if you're under the shade of an umbrella or tree.

What's more, if an umbrella is located on sand, the sand will reflect the sun's burning rays directly on you.

3. It's easier to sunburn between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. because the burning rays of the sun are more intense at that time.

FACT. When the sun is directly overhead—between 11:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m.—its rays are much more intense. For this reason it's best to tan in the morning or late afternoon. At these times, the harmful rays are partially blocked because they are slanted through the atmosphere.

4. Too much sun can cause your skin to age prematurely.

FACT. Too much sun eventually can make your skin turn limp, leathery and wrinkled. This is why it's so important to use sun-screening agents, especially if you work outside or if you are light-skinned and don't tan easily. Unfortunately, many suntan preparations do not contain a sun-screening agent. So, before purchasing such preparations, be sure the label clearly states it contains a sun-screener.

5. Suntan pills are safe for everyone.

FALLACY. So-called tanning pills can be extremely dangerous. These pills contain psoralen, a potent drug that could cause serious side effects if used without medical supervision. In addition, they can increase your skin's sensitivity to sunlight, causing you to burn more easily.

So avoid tanning pills, unless they are prescribed by a physician and taken as directed.

NARCOLEPSY—THE COFFEELESS COFFEE BREAK

Tom Kennon is a narcoleptic. He has an uncontrollable urge to sleep throughout the day, no matter how well he sleeps at night. He can hardly stay alert enough to drive his car.

This "sleep attacks," which vary in frequency from one to 20 times a day, occur at almost any time—while eating, talking or even taking a shower—and last anywhere from a few minutes to several hours.

This uncontrollable urge to sleep, known as narcolepsy, is much more common than you might think, afflicting the young as well as the old. Too often, however, the condition goes unrecognized for laboratory tests frequently prove negative, and the patient's complaints of chronic sleepiness may easily be dismissed as psychoneurosis.

A correct diagnosis can only be determined if the patient reports ALL his symptoms—and sleepiness is only one of them.

In most cases, narcolepsy also produces attacks of muscular weakness which are triggered by a strong emotion. This weakness may only affect the extremities. For example, an excited sportsman may drop his fishing pole when he gets a "strike." Or his knees may buckle when he laughs or suddenly becomes angry.

In addition to sleepiness and weakness, narcolepsy may also bring on sleep paralysis which usually occurs at the border between sleep and wakefulness. One man experienced such an attack while smoking in bed. Although he was aware of the cigarette smoldering between his fingers, he couldn't move when it burned him.

On occasion, narcolepsy may also be accompanied by hallucinations.

At present, we're not sure of the cause of narcolepsy. Possibly it's a malfunction of the brain's sleep-preventing mechanism. In normal persons, this mechanism maintains a wakeful state, even when they're sleepy, by inhibiting sleep. In narcoleptics, the "safety-catch" is somehow missing or not working.

However, since we do know it's a central nervous system disorder, severe cases may be controlled with amphetamines and other central nervous system stimulants.

In mild cases, a narcoleptic can learn to live with his problem by accepting it as simply an attack of normal sleep coming at the wrong time. One might say his attacks are merely "coffeeless coffee breaks."

Police Hampered By "Guilt-By Language" Says Hoover

Law enforcement today is being degraded, purposely in many instances by the widespread and indiscriminate use of the term "police brutality."

This practice is called a guilt-by-language process by some individuals. They may be right. For example, the word "juvenile" has been associated with "delinquency" so often and so long that now, when used alone, it has a disagreeable connotation to much of the public.

"Police brutality" conjures up visions of hulking men in uniform clubbing and beating innocent people. Rarely, however, does the term fit the circumstances to which it is applied. It is used in wild accounts of enforcement officers' lifting limp demonstrators who block busy thoroughfares in references, to oral commands by policemen who disperse potential troublemakers, in depicting efforts to halt violation of the law, and in describing any number of other sworn duties performed by policemen.

We know there is a calculated and deliberate attempt by some groups to inflame hostility against law enforcement by charging "police brutality" without cause. To a large degree they have succeeded. The term is bandied about in all media of communication without serious consideration as to its true meaning or its harmful effect on a profession which is charged with enforcing the basic rules of civilized living.

I agree with a growing number of responsible news editors, public officials, and law-abiding citizens that it is high time to get this "pet slogan" into a better perspective. We do not deny there have been instances of misuse of force by enforcement officers, but such incidents are not as prevalent as the public has been led to believe. A general and accepted principle of law has been that an officer may use such force as is necessary to make lawful arrests, protect his life, and perform other specific duties. Frequently, however, the choice is not his to make; he HAS to use force or be maimed or killed.

and have the rights of all the people trampled by those who have no respect for law or due process. Even then, his best efforts often are not enough, as evidenced by the appalling number of officers assaulted and killed each year.

Policemen have the same basic rights as others. There is no reason why they should be singled out for ridicule by invalid blanket accusations. The public, the press, and law enforcement itself should launch a concerted drive to stop the semantic indictment of the police. Allegations and incidents should be reported and described in realistic, impartial and truthful terms. If an officer is assaulted while making an arrest and uses undue force to subdue the person, then call it "undue force." If an officer uses profane language to a citizen, then describe it as profane language. If an officer is thought to be biased or prejudiced in his treatment of groups or individuals, then the complaint should so state. But the constant

Get The Most From Cabbage

Have you been throwing away the best part of your cabbage? The dark green outer leaves of all vegetables are more nutritious than inner leaves, stems, or midribs. When you discard the green outer leaves of cabbage, you are throwing away parts of the vegetable containing vitamin C and other nutrients.

Cooking "strong flavored" vegetables such as cabbage in a large amount of water was once thought to make them milder. That wastes nutrients. Even "strong flavored" vegetables can be cooked in a small amount of water if they are cooked briefly—just long enough to make them tender.

Be sure to cover the pan with a tight lid so the cabbage will retain its natural color. Season boiled cabbage (green) with onion, celery seed, or paprika. Try allspice or tarragon with red cabbage.

Of course, when cabbage is

The Law Serves You

IMPORTANCE OF WILLS

The two most misunderstood facts about wills concern their expense and who should have them.

Perhaps the myth is perpetuated by the late, late show—a movie produced in 1935, wherein we find a wealthy family gathered before a huge stone fireplace in a stately mansion with the lawyer coughing politely to gain attention and beginning to read the last will and testament of rich Uncle John.

The facts are that an uncomplicated will probably costs less than a night on the town for a party of four, and that the average family, not the wealthy one—can least afford the expense of settling an estate without a will. The additional probate expenses and death taxes that may result from not having a carefully drawn will are likely to be more damaging to the fiery of "police brutality" as a catch phrase, exploited and used as camouflage for illegal conduct is dead wrong. It is a stigmatization of police by rote.

J. Edgar Hoover

financial security of the average family than to the very wealthy one.

Costs of Probate
If a person dies leaving property, the Probate Court must either pass on the will or determine who are the legal heirs. A will frequently reduces expenses by providing that the executor need not furnish a surety bond to the court. A carefully drawn will can also create other savings.

If there is no will, an administrator is appointed by the court to settle an estate and make distribution as provided by law, after all claims and expenses have been paid. An individual without a will has no choice in the appointment of his administrator. But if there is a will, an executor takes the place of an administrator and is the one chosen by the individual to handle his estate. A person who makes a will, may name an executor in whom he has complete confidence, preferably someone with experience in handling estates.

Planned Distribution
Aside from the possible savings in estate costs and taxes, a will permits an individual to plan for the distribution of his property, whether that property is in the form of savings, real estate, objects of art, or certain business interests. If circumstances change, a will can be revoked or modified at any time before death.

According to Illinois law, if a married person dies without a will, one-third of the estate goes to the spouse (husband or wife), and two-thirds is divided among the children or other descendants. If there are no children or other descendants, then all the property will go to the spouse.

There are many other provisions in the law of wills. But in all cases, if there is no will the law is rigid and makes no exception for those in unusual need or circumstances, or for those who were going to write their will tomorrow.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON NEW CHRISTIAN SCIENCE "CHURCH CENTER"

First stages of land clearance were initiated June 6 for the expanded 15-acre headquarters of Christian Science, as members gathered from around the world for their Annual Meeting in "The Mother Church," shown in the center of this planning model. New details in the plan by I. M. Pei & Associates call for a block-long reflecting pool covering an underground garage, a 26-story Church Administration Building (lower right, scheduled for completion in 1969), and more space for auxiliary facilities in the long colonnaded building extending to the right of the original church. Also pictured are the existing Publishing House and proposed new apartment buildings surrounding the Center.

Churches Combine To Fight Famine

A nationwide appeal to Catholics and Protestants in this country on behalf of the women and children in India will be conducted jointly by the overseas relief agencies of both faiths. This will be the first nationwide appeal ever conducted jointly by the Catholic and Protestant faiths. The appeal is being conducted in response to pleas from Pope Paul VI and the World Council of Churches for Christians of all nations to unite in helping solve India's food shortage which was worsened by recent droughts. Both agencies have taken steps to increase their feeding programs in India in an effort to help meet the famine emergency. Catholic Relief Services has increased its program from 132 million pounds to 200 million pounds of foodstuffs and sent a special shipment of 22 million pounds of flour to the six areas officially declared famine-stricken. The bishops of the U. S. also donated $100,000 to CRS to purchase 1,620,000 pounds of rice. Church World Service is undertaking to increase its current mass feeding program from 500,000 to 1,000,000 persons daily in the worst areas of the famine. On May 5, the two agencies jointly chartered a vessel to ship 21,000 tons of U. S. government - donated wheat from Galveston, Tex., to Bombay, India. This marked the first time in the history of the two aid agencies that they had combined for a dually-sponsored shipment of relief supplies to any country. Officials of the two American overseas agencies are now considering other steps for continuation of the joint action for India famine relief both here and in India.

Previously a test center foreman in Waukegan, Benning has been with the company for 10 years. He started as a telephone installer in Grayslake and later held various Plant assignments in the Libertyville area. In 1960 he joined the Management Training Program and subsequently served in the Elmhurst and Antioch central offices as foreman. In 1963 he moved into the Assistant Comptrollers Department in Chicago. There he served as an accountant and internal auditor, and in 1964 was transferred into his most recent position in Waukegan. A native of Chicago, Benning graduated from DePaul Academy. He is a member and former president of the Lake Region Junior Chamber of Commerce. He and his wife, Betty, have one daughter and four sons.

When perforated, the liquid, which is contained under pressure, shoots out — causing injury. In one case, the substance was deposited around the eye and although some of the material was stripped away, the lower lid remained thickened. Surgery had to be performed about a year after the injury for cosmetic reasons. Perhaps the better part of wisdom would be to check the composition of your golf balls and to keep those with liquid centers out of the hands of small children. Form Organization For Lake County Alcoholics

The month of May, 1966 brought new hope to an estimated 7,000 Lake County citizens who are suffering from the progressive disease of alcoholism. During that month two new organizations were formed for the purpose of helping those who are afflicted with the ailment. One of those groups, the Lake County Committee on Alcoholism, was organized at its third meeting on May 26 with the election of a board of directors and an executive committee. This not-for-profit corporation composed of representatives of the clergy, medicine, industry, union labor, and other interested groups. It hopes to begin formal operation in the late summer or early fall. The other organization, the Alcoholics Anonymous Central Information Committee of Lake County (AACIC), grew out of a meeting of 26 representatives of 14 Lake County AA groups on April 24, in Waukegan. It began operation May 8. AA's public information service has three purposes: (1) Bringing AA to the attention of the alcoholic; (2) Keeping communities informed of the availability of AA, and (3) Co-operating with the other agencies that are trying to help alcoholics. The following article is the first of a series that will be released from time to time by the Alcoholics Anonymous Central Information Committee.

Alcoholics Anonymous
Alcoholics Anonymous is a fellowship of men and women who share their experience, strength and hope with each other that they may solve their common problem and help others to recover from alcoholism. The only requirement for membership is a desire to recover from alcoholism. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. There are no dues or fees for AA membership. AA is not allied with any sect, denomination, politics, organization or institution; does not wish to engage in any controversy, neither endorses nor opposes any causes. The primary purpose is to stay sober and help other alcoholics achieve sobriety. Those who have come to Alcoholics Anonymous for help, have quit kidding themselves. Many of them have gone through the usual experience of telling themselves that they could quit drinking any time they cared to. Most of them have quit drinking a thousand times or more. Trouble was, they couldn't stay quit. Most who have come to AA have been through the usual series of troubles common to most alcoholics—lost jobs, divorce, jail sentences, auto accidents and hospitalization. At the time those troubles were occurring, their thoughts were on the troubles themselves, not on the basic cause of those troubles. When they finally became honest with themselves and admitted that their troubles were caused by alcohol, that they needed help to quit drinking, and sought that help through AA, they found hope. When they became sober through the AA principles, most of their troubles disappeared and life once more became manageable. That same help is available to anybody, just for the asking. There is no charge, no fee, no application blank to fill out, no initiation procedure, no pledge to take. Just contact Alcoholics Anonymous, ask for help, and you're in! Maybe you could quit drinking all by yourself, if you wanted to. But for most in AA, trying to quit drinking was a very hard job and they found it much easier with the help of AA friends. Plenty of help for problem drinkers is available in all parts of Lake County. Just contact the nearest AA group. If the phone number isn't listed in the directory, ask your chief of police, who will probably know the name of at least one AA member. For more information or literature about AA, write to AA Central Information Committee, Post Office Box 98, Illinois 60099.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?"—this is the question explored in the Bible Lesson to be presented at all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The Golden Text is from I Samuel: "The pillars of the earth are the Lord's, and he hath set the world upon them." Opening the Lesson-Sermon will be Paul's statement in Hebrews: "Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." The theme is explained further in references from the Christian Science textbook, including these: "The true theory of the universe, including man, is not in material history but in spiritual development. . . . Through many generations human beliefs will be attaining diviner conceptions, and the immortal and perfect model of God's creation will finally be seen as the only true conception of being" ("Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy).

Antioch Has Babe Ruth League

Antioch will host Babe Ruth baseball for the first time during the 1966 baseball season. Babe Ruth League, Inc., the parent program, is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization devoted to providing wholesome amateur baseball for 13, 14 and 15-year-old boys.

Babe Ruth competition is held on regulation diamonds under the basic rules of organized baseball. There are affiliated local leagues throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Puerto Rico, Central and South America, Europe and Africa. Every local league is supervised by local citizens.

The Antioch Babe Ruth League has four teams, with fifteen boys on each team. More boys would like to take part in the program, but sponsors are not available.

It is the aim of the Babe Ruth league to instill in the boys the following seven rules: develop a strong, clean healthy body, mind and soul; develop a strong urge for sportsman-like conduct; develop understanding of and respect for the rules; develop courage in defeat, tolerance and modesty in victory; develop control over emotions and speech; develop spirit of cooperation and team play, and develop into real, true citizens.

Below is the 1966 game schedule:

Pro-Am Event Prelim of Western Open

A pro-amateur golf tournament will be held at Medinah Country Club's No. 3 course on Wednesday, June 22, as a preliminary event for the 1966 Western Open Championship.

The Western Golf Association, sponsor of the Western Open, will conduct the pro-amateur for the benefit of its Evans Scholars Foundation. A maximum of 150 amateur participants will contribute $250 to the Evans Scholars program in lieu of an entry fee.

The amateurs will be paired with golf's leading pros playing in the Western Open. The 18-hole pro-amateur will have a separate prize purse of $6,000 for the pros.

This will be the fourth year for this special fund-raising event, which has produced $97,000 for the Evans Scholars Foundation the last three summers.

Last year at Tam O'Shanter, Bob McCallister was low pro with 85, while five teams, led by touring pros Howie Johnson, "Dutch" Harrison, Bert Weaver, Horacio Blancas and Charles Coody, tied for first place.

USE THE BEST, KEEP 'EM ON THE HOOK

Cheap hooks, or hooks of improper design, are bad luck in fishing. The very best costs very little more. Get name brand quality hooks every time, and pick the right ones for the job. Double-offset hooks are most popular for bait fishing. In a double-offset hook the bend is offset half on each side of the shank, thus making the hook twist into the cartilage of a fish more easily for greater penetration and holding power.

Trick Shot Artist At Golf Club

One of the world's greatest golf trick shot artists, Paul Hahn, will present his one hour routine at the first tee of Midlane Farm Country Club, near Waukegan, on Friday, June 24, at 6 p.m.

Hahn has a bag weighing 90 pounds from which he pulls clubs with rubber shafts and swivel joints.

Where other golfers measure their stances so that they hit the ball with their feet placed the same way on every shot, Hahn hits from all positions, including kneeling, sitting, and standing on one foot on a folding chair. In spite of these unorthodox methods, he usually hits the ball 250 yards straight down the fairway.

Considered an excellent comedian, Hahn has given demonstrations of his skill in 37 different countries and flies his own airplane, a 200 mph Piper Twin Comanche. Midlane Farm Country Club is just off route 41 at Wadsworth, Ill., just 5 miles northwest of downtown Waukegan.

Kalous Leads Field At Speedway

Veteran stock car driver, Dan Kalous, dominated the racing card at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night as he turned in the second swiftest time trial, grabbed second in the dash, won the fourth heat and then triumphed in the 25-lap late model feature.

Kalous regained the feature lead with only two laps remaining after stiff competition from Odell Jones and Dennis Burgan. Kalous has been racing all types of stock cars since 1948.

Kalous was the only double winner as the rest of the honors were well distributed. Tom Seyl was the evening's fastest qualifier. Dick Strom won the exciting trophy dash while Bob Klemm, Jones and Ester came through in the other heat races. Jim Dietmeyer, who missed the time trials, grabbed the consolation honors with his new '427' Chevrolet entry. Marv Powles outlasted a large field to take the demolition derby honors.

Next Saturday night there will be a powder puff derby and the following Saturday will be the June Championship races for the late models. On Thursday night, June 23, Waukegan will welcome the Jole Chitwood Auto Thrill Show to the speed-plant. The Chitwood stunt drivers travel the nation annually presenting automotive acts that are designed to thrill the audiences.

ANSELL BROTHERS BIG WINNERS SUNDAY NIGHT

The 'Racing Ansell Brothers' scored big at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night in the weekly modified stock car competition. Homer Ansell lead most of the way to win the hotly contested feature. Brother Bill was right on his tail, but could never work his way by. Earlier, Brother Fran won the second heat race. The Ansell brothers represent 30 years of actual racing experience. Dennis Burgan passed Jack Ester for the final time in the seventeenth lap of the late model feature to score another win.

Along with the two thrilling features, a torrid heat race high-lighted activities. Claude Potter held back repeated challenges by point leader John Reimer in their heat. Reimer was inches in front of Whitley Harris and the three wrestled for the lead for most of the race. Potter held on to the finish to win, but Reimer was right beside him and on the inside.

There will be late model and jalopy stock car racing at the Waukegan Oval again next weekend. The world-famous Jole Chitwood Auto Thrill Show will be presented Thursday night, June 23.

ROPING SPECTACULAR

Black light roping will be a feature of the State Fair Horse Show this year by the man who originated it.

Mrs. Virginia Comstock, secretary of the National Championship Horse Show, announced the appearance of J. W. Stoker of Overland Park, Kan., considered one of the outstanding rodeo riders in the nation.

A large paper horseshoe glows under infrared luminescence at Stoker's entrance. The rider and horse plunge through the shoe and Stoker spins a 75-ft. rope called the Cowboy's Wedding Ring.

The performance includes various butterfly and flat loop routines, both on horseback and on the ground.

Nobody is so irritating to some men as the fellow who wears evening clothes on the slightest provocation.

I love you, too! says Maureen McCarthy, daughter of Mary McCarthy, R. R. 3, Antioch. Maureen is shown with her poodle, Bam Bam. The two are in conference about the 16th annual All Breed Dog Show to be held at the Lake County Fairgrounds June 19.

Local Kennel Has Entries In Dog Show

A local kennel, Ri-Mar Poodles, will be showing dogs in the 16th annual All-Breed Dog Show to be presented by the Chain O' Lakes Kennel Club Sunday, June 19, at the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake.

Over 1,300 dogs are expected to compete for top American Kennel Club approved awards and trophies. In addition to conformation showing for all breeds, the show features Afghan Hound and Whippet races and Junior Showmanship competitions of interest to the public.

Ri-Mar Poodles will be showing some of their prize Manchesters, a toy terrier. The kennel is located on Rt. 3, west of Antioch.

The show is open to the public and easy to reach at the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake via routes 45 or 120.

Realtors Launch Campaign Against Housing Law

The Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors has launched a campaign to convince all home owners to study carefully Title IV of the proposed federal civil rights bill now before Congress, William G. Schwandt, president, announced today.

"The Realtors are convinced," he explained, "that all home and property owners, regardless of their personal feelings on other aspects of civil rights, will make known their opposition to their Representatives and Senators immediately once they realize that this title would wipe out a basic right of all citizens considered unassailable since the founding of this nation."

"I refer to the human right to sell or rent private real property—or to refuse to sell or rent—to whom ever the owner chooses for whatever reason without coercion or dictation from the government."

"Just as many remedies suggested by well wishers to solve an ailment in any field are frequently wrong and often detrimental so is Title IV which has the purported goal of protecting against discrimination on account of race, color, religion, or national origin in the purchase or rental of housing," he explained.

Basically, this proposal would empower the federal government to force an owner to sell or lease his property to a person not of his choice, and this covers every type of housing from a room for rent in his house or his some itself to land to be used as the site of a dwelling, Mr. Schwandt said.

"In the history of the human right to own property, certainly one of the prime characteristics of ownership is the right to dispose. If an individual lacks the right to dispose of his property freely and within his own discretion, he is not truly the owner. Thus, this human right of real property ownership depends upon freedom of contract in disposition," he added.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards, of which the Waukegan-Lake County board is a member, together with 1,500 others throughout the nation, has emphasized these points to the Judiciary Committee of the House and is scheduled to testify soon before a Senate committee.

"All home and property owners should understand the import of Title IV of this so-called civil rights bill which would destroy this traditional basic freedom enjoyed by all Americans under the guise of providing a new right for minority groups, and then let all their Representatives and Senators know immediately how they feel about this 'wrong way approach,'" he urged.

The only true and lasting solution to the problem of open occupancy will come by understanding and education fostered voluntarily by churches, schools, and all men of good will, he added. And much progress is already quietly being made by voluntary efforts throughout the nation—the "right way approach" which should be receiving the attention of many of those who are diverting their energy in campaigning for forced housing.

Schwandt appointed John Leonardi, Sr., of Highwood as Title IV Legislative Chairman for the board who added "This proposed law is also very harmful to Tenants, as the Landlord and or Managing Agent seeking harmony and to avoid trouble may be prevented from selecting Tenants with the same general background and compatibility."

Only modern electric heat is as clean as the sun

Electric heat is unlike any other type of home heating. It's flameless—it burns no fuel, and it keeps your whole house cleaner, more comfortable. And because an electrically-heated home stays clean longer, wall washing and redecorating are kept to a minimum.

With electric heat, you can pick the type of heat you want. There are 5 basic types of flameless electric heating equipment. Depending on your heating requirements, one system may be used separately, or several may be teamed together.

If you're planning a new home or thinking of converting your present heating system, check into electric heat. You'll find that it's the most modern, convenient type of home heat today. And it's clean.

I love you, too! says Maureen McCorty, daughter of Mary McCorty, R. R. 3, Antioch. Maureen is shown with her poodle, Bam Bam. The two are in conference about the 16th annual All Breed Dog Show to be held at the Lake County Fairgrounds June 19.

Local Kennel Has Entries In Dog Show

A local kennel, Ri-Mar Poodles, will be showing dogs in the 16th annual All-Breed Dog Show to be presented by the Chain O' Lakes Kennel Club Sunday, June 19, at the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake.

Over 1,300 dogs are expected to compete for top American Kennel Club approved awards and trophies. In addition to conformation showing for all breeds, the show features Afghan Hound and Whippet races and Junior Showmanship competitions of interest to the public.

Ri-Mar Poodles will be showing some of their prize Manchesters, a toy terrier. The kennel is located on Rt. 3, west of Antioch.

The show is open to the public and easy to reach at the Lake County Fairgrounds in Grayslake via routes 45 or 120.

Realtors Launch Campaign Against Housing Law

The Waukegan-Lake County Board of Realtors has launched a campaign to convince all home owners to study carefully Title IV of the proposed federal civil rights bill now before Congress, William G. Schwandt, president, announced today.

"The Realtors are convinced," he explained, "that all home and property owners, regardless of their personal feelings on other aspects of civil rights, will make known their opposition to their Representatives and Senators immediately once they realize that this title would wipe out a basic right of all citizens considered unassailable since the founding of this nation.

"I refer to the human right to sell or rent private real property—or to refuse to sell or rent—to whom ever the owner chooses for whatever reason without coercion or dictation from the government.

"Just as many remedies suggested by well wishers to solve an ailment in any field are frequently wrong and often detrimental so is Title IV which has the purported goal of protecting against discrimination on account of race, color, religion, or national origin in the purchase or rental of housing," he explained.

Basically, this proposal would empower the federal government to force an owner to sell or lease his property to a person not of his choice, and this covers every type of housing from a room for rent in his house or his some itself to land to be used as the site of a dwelling.

Mr. Schwandt said, "In the history of the human right to own property, certainly one of the prime characteristics of ownership is the right to dispose. If an individual lacks the right to dispose of his property freely and within his own discretion, he is not truly the owner. Thus, this human right of real property ownership depends upon freedom of contract in disposition," he added.

The National Association of Real Estate Boards, of which the Waukegan-Lake County board is a member together with 1,500 others throughout the nation, has emphasized these points to the Judiciary Committee of the House and is scheduled to testify soon before a Senate committee.

"All home and property owners should understand the import of Title IV of this so-called civil rights bill which would destroy this traditional basic freedom enjoyed by all Americans under the guise of providing a new right for minority groups, and then let all their Representatives and Senators know immediately how they feel about this 'wrong way approach,'" he urged.

The only true and lasting solution to the problem of open occupancy will come by understanding and education fostered voluntarily by churches, schools, and all men of good will, he added. And much progress is already quietly being made by voluntary efforts throughout the nation—the "right way approach" which should be receiving the attention of many of those who are diverting their energy in campaigning for forced housing.

Schwandt appointed John Leonardi, Sr., of Highwood as Title IV Legislative Chairman for the board who added "This proposed law is also very harmful to Tenants, as the Landlord and or Managing Agent seeking harmony and to avoid trouble may be prevented from selecting Tenants with the same general background and compatibility."

Only modern electric heat is as clean as the sun

Electric heat is unlike any other type of home heating. It's flameless—it burns no fuel, and it keeps your whole house cleaner, more comfortable. And because an electrically-heated home stays clean longer, wall washing and redecorating are kept to a minimum.

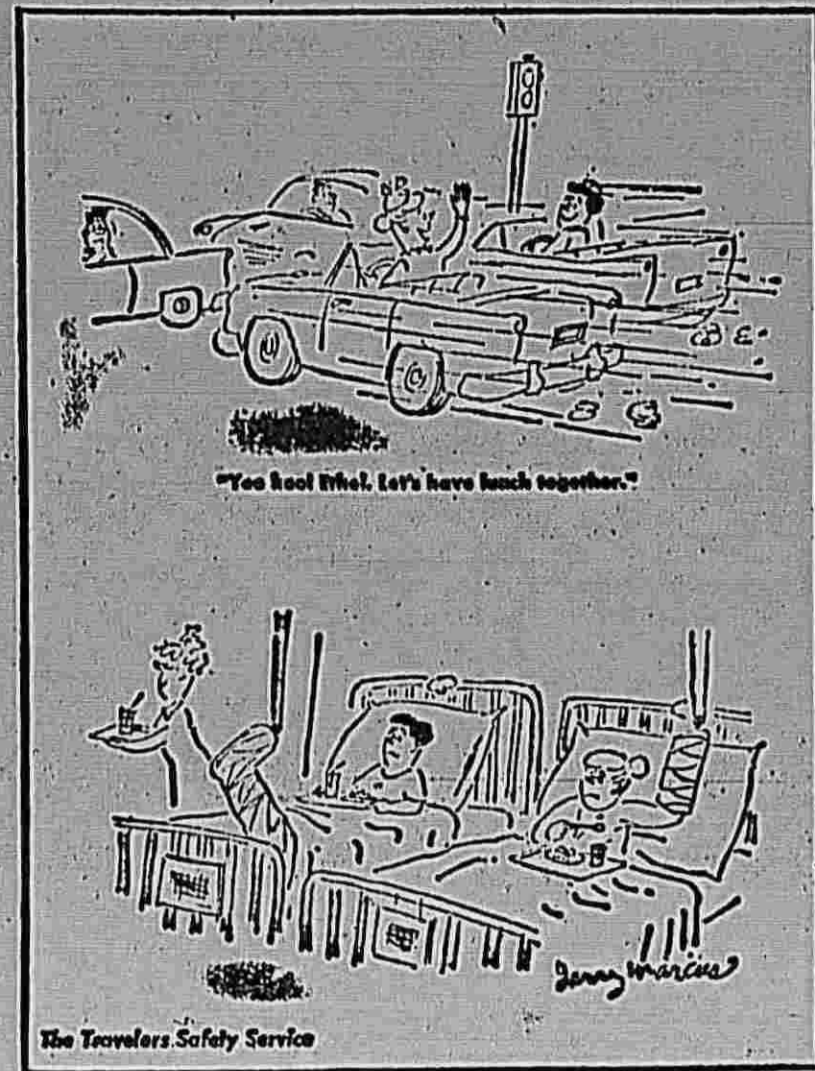

With electric heat, you can pick the type of heat you want. There are 5 basic types of flameless electric heating equipment. Depending on your heating requirements, one system may be used separately, or several may be teamed together.

If you're planning a new home or thinking of converting your present heating system, check into electric heat. You'll find that it's the most modern, convenient type of home heat today. And it's clean.

For more information about electric heating, call our nearest office.

Treatment For Tennis Elbow

By Elizabeth Stewart
Women's Medical News Service

Here is good news for sufferers from humeral epicondylitis—or "tennis elbow" as it is more familiarly known. This painful condition, which afflicts tennis players, golfers, bowlers, plumbers, carpenters, typists, and even dice shooters, among others, can now be readily treated, and without any interruption of either the work or play schedule.

Two California physicians reported recently that eight out of 10 of their patients who wore a specially prescribed brace were able to return to their sport or work with good results. The brace limited extension of the arm and forearm rotary motion and also supported the elbow. The brace seemed more effective than other methods of treatment such as heat application, ultra-sound, whirlpool therapy, or steroid injections.

An added bonus, according to the physicians: "The brace tends to improve the patient's tennis or golf technique by using the arm as a single unit. The added weight encourages the follow-through after the ball is struck." The doctors didn't say what effect the brace had on the dice game. The report on "tennis elbow" appeared in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Fox Lake Legion Post Entertains Wounded Vets

Lake Region Post 703 of Fox Lake is entertaining

Viet Nam vets who are convalescing at Great Lakes Hospital every Sunday through the summer.

The Lake Region Post facilities have about everything to entertain the veterans. They have 685 feet of lake shore with several piers; private picnic grounds, barbecue pits and picnic tables, and a building with kitchen, large hall, TV lounge, organ and piano, and rooms for billiards and ping pong.

A bus load of patients is expected each Sunday between 10 and 11 a.m. Fishing equipment will be furnished, lunch will be served, there will be motor boat rides in the afternoon. Evening dinner will be served by the ladies of the Legion Auxiliary followed by entertainment.

The Lake Region Post sponsored a similar program for wounded Korean vets in 1951. Harold Meyers, a Past Commander of the Post, was chairman of the program and has again assumed chairmanship.

Lake Region Post Commander Byron L. Strand has appointed Dr. A. W. Bywell and Roy Klaus as co-chairmen of arrangements to assist Meyers in scheduling organizations offering to sponsor a Sunday. They will also schedule offers of boats, music, entertainment and young ladies who may wish to visit and dance with the veterans.

If all the midwife kits shipped by UNICEF were stacked end to end, they would reach a height four times that of Mt. Everest (a total of 116,112 ft. or 21.9 miles).

Defensive driving is important in all traffic situations.

THERE ARE GRADE "A"

AND THERE ARE GRADE "A"

Not all Grade "A" eggs are alike. To be labeled Grade "A" eggs must meet certain minimum requirements.

There is many an egg that can be called Grade "A" that just never could be a Sunnybrook Egg.

Sunnybrook Eggs... they're our best. They have to be well above the minimum or they won't make the grade with us.

Break one in a pan, notice how proud the yolk sits up. That's the sign of a good egg... a fresh egg... a Sunnybrook Egg.

Try Sunnybrook. And if you ever find just one egg that doesn't measure up, we'll give you a dozen free. 12 for 1... that's pretty good odds.

Are Sunnybrook Eggs a good reason for shopping A&P? They're one of many.
